++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry on Thursday with some sunshine, feeling warmer than recently.

Today:
Cloudy start for much of the north of the area, but a dry day with sunny spells breaking through widely. Feeling much warmer than of late although onshore breezes keeping coastal districts a little cooler. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
Some evening sunshine. Clear at first tonight, but low cloud forming across the north, extending south towards Aberdeen overnight, foggy over higher ground. Staying clear over Deeside. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Low cloud burning back to the east coastal strip where some will linger keeping it cool. Sunny spells elsewhere and becoming warm. Low cloud, mist, drizzle edging inland in evening. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudier on Saturday but brightening up for most, quite warm, east coast haar. Sunday looks warm dry and sunny. Cloudier on Monday but still quite bright and warm.
